

Social Studies Core Course Crosswalk 2007

There have been a number of requests from counselors and administrators for a sense of which courses, offered across the state, fulfill corresponding core requirements. Below is a graphic of this “crosswalk” that represents what most districts use to determine whether core requirements are fulfilled. It is not an exhaustive list, but rather represents the general consensus of acceptable courses. If there are questions about courses not on this list, please contact me at robert.austin@schools.utah.gov

Course Name	Generally Accepted Alternatives
US History II	AP US History Concurrent Enrollment HIST 1700, if offered in a full year Concurrent Enrollment HIST 2710
World Civilizations	AP European History AP World History Concurrent Enrollment HIST 1100 &amp; 1110 if both are taken
Geography For Life	AP Human Geography
US Government &amp; Citizenship	AP US Government &amp; Politics Concurrent Enrollment Political Science 1100